

MEMORANDUM

DATE: January 23, 2006

TO: Interested Stakeholders

FROM: George A. Twiss

SUBJECT: Schedule for adoption of CE Rules for Land Surveying & On-site Designers/Inspectors

Here is the revised calendar toward the eventual adoption of the rules for continuing education. Note that the dates shown in bold typeface are dates that cannot be changed. They are set by the rule making process controlled by the Code Reviser. Other dates or time periods have a degree of flexibility.

The Supplementary schedule will be used ONLY if the Board does not approve the first rule proposal as filed on March 1st.

February 10:	End of preliminary stakeholder input period.
February 13 to 28:	Board to evaluate comments and incorporate any changes that are deemed appropriate.
March 1:	File notice of Proposed Rule Making, CR-102 with the State Office of the Code Reviser.
March 8:	Official notification of rule making is distributed to all licensed land surveyors for comment.
March 15:	Notification of Proposed Rule Making is published in the Washington State Register.
March 10 to April 15:	Receive and evaluate comments on language filed with the CR-102 .
April 25:	Proposed public hearing date. Actual date will appear in the CR-102 when it is distributed.

April 27: At the scheduled Special Board Meeting in Tacoma, Board will consider a motion to adopt the proposed rules as published in CR-102 from March 1, 2006. (*)

May 5: Distribute Concise Explanatory Statement.

May 10: File Rule-Making Order, CR-103.

July 1: BOARD APPROVED RULES BECOME EFFECTIVE.

(*) If motion does not pass and the Board seeks further amendments, the proposed amendments will again be filed with a new CR 102 and a revised schedule for stakeholder input will be implemented.

(See supplementary schedule)
